MENU

The Falmouth Hotel, known as the 'Grande Dame of Falmouth', first opened in 1865, as Isambard Kingdom Brunel expanded the Great Western Railway into Cornwall. Its castle-like Victorian architecture, spacious interiors, fantastic seafront location and award-winning food has ensured its place as one of Cornwall's best known hotels.

The hotel has witnessed many key moments in British history, including the Diamond Jubilees of Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth II, National Strikes in 1911 and was taken over by the War Department in 1917 for the purposes of a military hospital. During World War Two, the hotel was camouflaged by the Admiralty, who also commandeered the entire fourth floor as offices. By the spring of 1944, the areas around the hotel and Falmouth were used in preparation for the D Day landings.
